Date: 14 Nov., 2025

Venue: Auditorium, S. P College, Srinagar

Organiser: NSS

Participants: Faculty and students

No. of participants: 150

Report

Commemorating 150 years of Vande Mataram, students, faculty members and NSS volunteers of Sri Pratap College, Srinagar also participated in the Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan Pledge.

The pledge was administered in the main auditorium, where all participants stood together to reaffirm their commitment to building a society free from substance abuse. The gathering collectively vowed to stay away from all intoxicating substances, discourage their use among peers, and spread awareness about the harmful impacts of drug addiction within their families and communities.

The initiative was conducted under the banner of NSS S.P. College, reflecting the institution's dedication to promoting healthy lifestyles, responsible citizenship, and youth empowerment. The pledge marked a strong message of collective resolve towards creating a Nasha-Mukt, healthy and progressive Nation.
