Report

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Sri Pratap College, Srinagar organised a special commemorative programme to observe 150 years of India's National Song — Vande Mataram. The event aimed to honour India's nation-builders, reinforce patriotic values and instill a sense of unity and national pride among students.

The programme commenced at 2:00 pm with a formal welcome to faculty members, staff and students. The College Tarana set a solemn and inspiring tone for the day, followed by the screening of a short documentary highlighting the legacy and academic journey of Sri Pratap College.

The highlight of the inaugural session was the address by the Principal of S.P. College, Prof. (Dr.) Bashir Ahmad Sheikh. In his remarks, he provided a brief outline of the programme, reflecting on the significance of celebrating the National song. He also expressed deep solidarity with the families who lost their loved ones in the recent Red Fort bomb blast in Delhi, condemning the tragic incident and reminding the audience of the need for collective responsibility towards peace, resilience and National harmony.

Following the address, the audience witnessed the screening of patriotic documentaries and short films, carefully curated to highlight India's struggle for freedom, cultural unity and the emotional power of Vande Mataram as a National Symbol. These films resonated deeply with students and faculty, offering both historical insight and emotional reflection.

In the concluding session, Basit Bashir, an NSS Volunteer, presented the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, the NSS programme officers and all student participants for making the programme meaningful and impactful. He acknowledged the continuous encouragement provided by the College administration in organising such National awareness programmes.
