DIVYANGJAN POLICY

The College has adopted a well-defined policy for the Specially Abled students admitted in the College in terms of the following:

1. Ramps in all buildings to facilitate their free and comfortable movement in the campus.
2. Reserved washroom facility for both male and female Divyangjans.
3. Separate/special window for fee deposition.
4. Separate time slot for Gymnasium.
5. Facilitation of locating the reference/ study material in the library.
6. Extra time for borrowing books in the library.
7. Special Seat reservation in the Browsing Centre.
8. Counselling to get scholarship from the Social Welfare Department & other related organizations.
9. Concession in Tuition Fee Component.
10. College Financial Aid Annually.

Each of these measures contributes to creating an inclusive and supportive environment within the college campus, promoting equal opportunities and access to education for the specially abled students.
